

How collaboration enables circular plastics

Luis Hoffmann

Sulzer has entered into several partnerships focusing on developing integrated polymer recycling processes for textiles, polyolefins, and polystyrene with partners Fuenix, BASF, VTT and Worn Again. The presentation will provide an overview of these collaborations and offer insights into the latest developments achieved. This includes recycling technologies as well as purification technologies for recovered products.